STORY OF YEAR- NEWPORT HIGH SCHOOL

Although the rule for geometric figures is that the whole is equal to the sum of its parts, we at Newport News feel that the whole of our circle, which represents HIGH SCHOOL EXPERIENCES, is greater than the sum of its parts, for these experiences, being spiritual as well as intellectual and social, cannot be measured in mathematical terms. We will therefore not attempt to indicate what proportion of our circle represents sports, or what, faculty. We will, instead, let each person decide for himself what part each facet of school life has played in forming his total experiences of 1961 at Newport News High School.

DEDICATED TO...

Her method is not to teach, but to guide. She will listen carefully — challenge — and guide us in coming to our own conclusions. The dynamic quality of that guidance indicates her own depth of knowledge and comprehension, and her determination to influence definite, accurate thinking in us. We, her students, find her an inspiration.

MISS WISE, FOR YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Although the students here at Newport News High School have varied interests, there is one that all have in common — school spirit. This quality has come to be synonymous in the minds of our student body with a man whose own enthusiastic and infectious pride in our school has made him become, in effect, our faculty sponsor of school spirit.

MR. WILSON, FOR YOUR SPIRIT.

YOU

HAVE MEANT SO MUCH TO
OUR CIRCLE.

SCHOOL LIFE

SCHOOL LIFE IS THAT PERSONAL
FACTOR OF THE CIRCLE
WHICH ENRICHES
EVERY OTHER PART
WITH UNFORGETTABLE
MEMORIES.

THE STUDENTS LEARNED,

No! N. N. H. S. students are not getting younger every year; these are just some of our senior girls after their number in the Hampton Pep Assembly.

The N. N. H. S. Christmas family, portrayed by Louis Tucker, Phillip Hammond, Josie Morgan, Wendell Williamson, Dianne Adams and Barbara Nunnally, are very proud of the students for the generosity they displayed in contributing gifts to needy families on the Peninsula.

Our rings, our rings are finally here. At last it is our senior year.

The camera's eye catches the pretty smiles of our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders who have just sung a song wishing the team good luck in the Turkey Day Game.

RELAXED, CREATED,

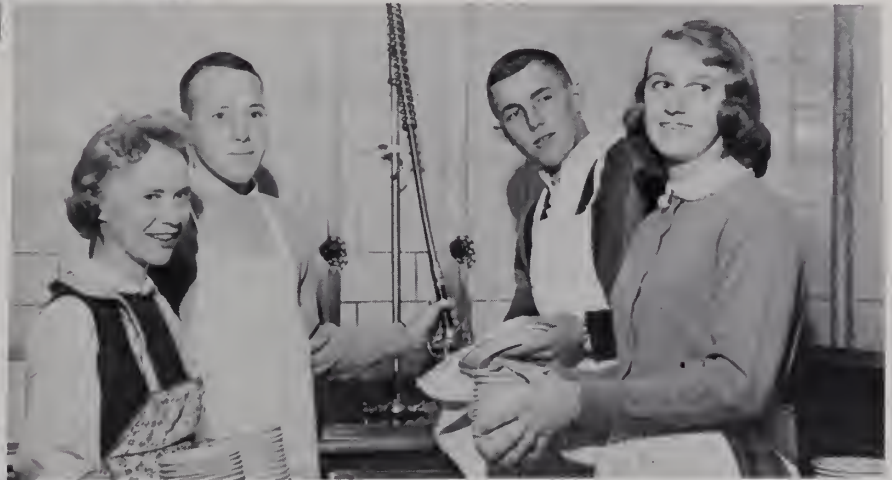

"I don't care how you vote as long as it's my way," say Bobby Dick and Phillip Gold to Mary Lou Staton, who is on her way to the polls to vote in the school's mock election.

At the Hampton Pep Assembly the N. N. H. S. band, directed by Mr. J. P. Wilson, led the student body in our familiar fight-song, "On Oh Newport".

"We'll never forget our lunch money again," say Betty Overman, Bob Saunders, Milton Eason, and Claudia Steele. Moral of the story: Even seniors don't get free lunches.

Anne Andrews, moderator, thanks Representative Thomas Downing and Mr. Richard M. May for appearing in a congressional candidates' debate presented by the Speech Arts Club before the student body.

AND COMPETED

"Lovely to look at, delightful to see," describes Miss Faith DeArment, the 1960 Band Sweetheart, as she is presented with a bouquet of roses from Mr. Maidment, Principal of N. N. H. S.

Couples who are "going steady" such as Brownie Shaffer, Eugene Turner, and Betsy Barnhouse, Gerald Schweida are often seen spending time with each other in the halls of N. N. H. S.

Some little pigs go to market, but Red Crossley, our number one supporter, brings his pigs with him to the annual Turkey Day game.

Sleeping beauty was kissed by Prince Charming, so what is Robert Fitzgerald waiting for?

WITH YOUTHFUL ENTHUSIASM.

Promoting school spirit by cheering at football and basketball games, and leading the student body in pep assemblies are the main jobs of the Varsity Cheerleaders. Surrounding head cheerleader Judi Hawley, the girls at the top left running clockwise are Sally Morewitz and Stephanie Spradlin, Jane Walker and Josie Morgan, Brenda Veasey and Tina Burroughs, and Becky Smith and Rochelle Leifer.

"Mr. Chairman, Homeroom 206 casts all of its 30 votes for the mice," says this homeroom representative in the annual Mouse Assembly.

THEY, COMBINED WITH THE

You had better watch the time, Mary Anas and Donald Schwartz. Spending too much time in the halls almost made you late for class.

These mice, Nancy Lewis, Gloria Bellows, and Frances Hollifield, show that they, too, feel that honor is a big part of their lives here at N. N. H. S.

"Dear Alma Mater, through the years, We'll ne'er forget our love for you," sings Catherine Barter, accompanied by Julie Jaffee, as they present their original class song to the graduating seniors.

EVENTS AND TRADITIONS

"Sh-h-h-h, he's shooting a foul shot!" Newport News fans exhibit their well known sportsmanship at the Hampton basketball game.

"Best of luck to the Class of 1962," says Senior Class president, Horace Underwood, as he transfers the traditional cap and gown to Bill Bryant, President of the Junior Class.

After their arrival at school and before homeroom period begins, Cho Gillespie, Alvin Downs, and Banning Crossley spend their time waiting for the girls.

Meanwhile Annette Rouse, Sharron Weaver, and Judy Sawyer spend their time primping.

It seems as though these students are thoroughly enjoying their snack at the Y. M. C. A., since a favorite teenage diet consists of cokes and potato chips.

OF NEWPORT NEWS

Smiling as they come down the stairs on their way to perform in a pep assembly, the Junior Varsity Flagwirlers hope that they will be able to show the team that they are behind them all the way.

What's this dangling before my eyes
Amid the basketball cheers and cries?
Why it's only the boys who take their seat
On the ledge upstairs and dangle their feet.

Looks as if we could use a policeman to clear this jam caused by Wayne Delozier and Suzie Greene, as he helps her pick up her books.

We thought girls were the only gossips, but it looks as though the boys who congregate on the first floor every morning have certainly proven us wrong.

These happy students, Becky Smith, Phyllis Ritter, Robert Worthington, Mal Whiteside, Rochelle Leifer, and John Carleton, take time out from their busy schedules to take advantage of the quickly vanishing snow.

PRODUCED

"I think you're pushing, not pulling," says Bob Stalnaker to his sister Susan, as she assists him in removing his boots.

"Look out! Stanley Binder and Mary Claire Gerber, the librarian is watching you."

It was beginning to look a lot like Christmas throughout the halls of N. N. H. S. as each homeroom appropriately decorated its door in preparation for this happy holiday.

Mark is sitting alone on the stair.

Along came Connie and Libby unaware.

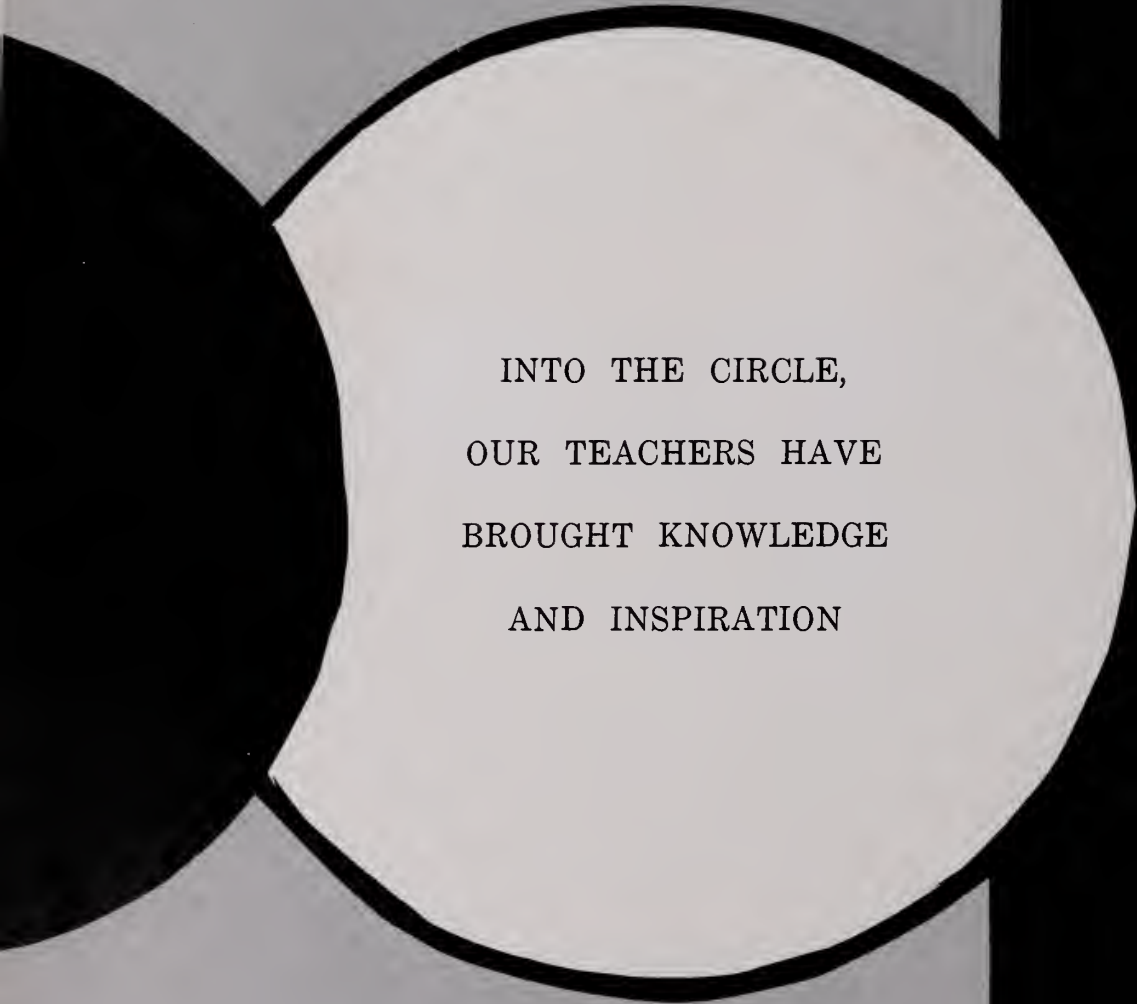

Hi, Mark Hi, girls! How're Y'all?

Here's how friendly Typhoons gather in the hall.

This is a typical scene at Newport News High School where students take great pride in their tradition of friendliness. What could be a more pleasant tradition to uphold?

FACULTY

INTO THE CIRCLE,
OUR TEACHERS HAVE BROUGHT KNOWLEDGE AND INSPIRATION

FOR US, THE FUTURE LEADERS,

To The Senior Class of 1961:

To say that this has been a year of accomplishment would be a decided understatement. Achievement of the academic, athletic, and musical variety has been, at times, rather spectacular. Certainly, your class has left an enviable legacy. I wish for you the fulfillment of your aspirations as you enter the working force, further your education, assume your military obligation or take on the responsibilities of homemaking.

In just a very few days each of you will receive his diploma. A piece of paper displaying your name, replete with validating seals and signatures a piece of paper signifying successful completion of all graduation requirements in a school where honor is uppermost, where self-direction and respect replace coercion and fear, where the "I will" is more revealing than the I. Q. and where competency overshadows mediocrity. Yes, it is an important piece of paper it is a diploma from Newport News High School may you carry it proudly! And as you review "the-good-old-days" in the 1961 Anchor, may your memories be pleasant ones!

*Best wishes always,
Robert Maidment, Principal*

THEY PERSISTED IN THEIR PURPOSE :

Mr. Robert Maidment, Principal

TO ACQUAINT US WITH KNOWLEDGE,

Mr. Thomas O. Keesee

Handling the disciplinary problems, checking transcripts to be sent to other schools and colleges, and making out school schedules are the main duties of our assistant principal, Mr. Thomas O. Keesee. His vast knowledge and sense of humor cause him to be greatly admired by the student body.

Miss Ethel M. Gildersleeve

"I am busy all the time—I've never made a work-study of my days—it might be interesting if I could find the time," stated Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, Dean of Girls. She sponsors the F.T.A., the Student Council and its sixteen committees, administers the N.N.H.S. Scholarship Fund, and formulates the daily bulletin.

Miss Mary Margaret Lane

As head of the Guidance Department, Miss Margaret Lane helps seniors with their decisions about the future and supplies them with information about educational and vocational opportunities. She also administers school-wide tests and interprets the results to teachers, parents, and pupils.

OUR

PAUSE

IT IS IN THE
CLASSROOM THAT
THE ESSENTIAL
PURPOSE OF THE
CIRCLE IS ACHIEVED.

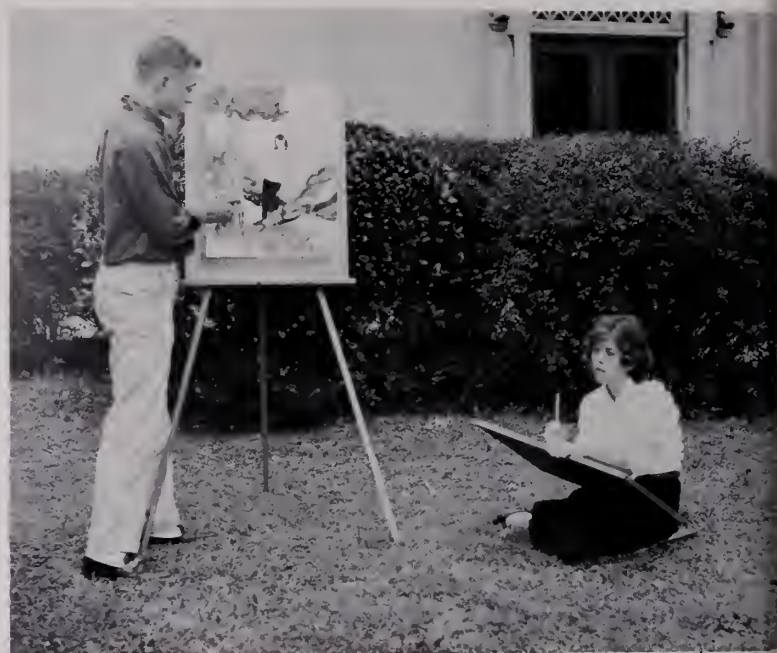

TO LEARN IS TO LIVE FULLY

TRIGONOMETRY

"See, it's easy," says Ophelia Baker, as she explains the sine of an angle.

ART

One of the most enjoyable facets in Miss Fitzgerald's art class is outside sketching. Maurine Burnett and Allen Nesbitt conscientiously work on their paintings.

LATIN III

Miss Brewer points out to her Latin class the vast area that was influenced by the Romans.

IN THE CLASSROOM,

CLOTHING

One of the favorite courses of Home Economics is clothing class, where girls learn the art of sewing. Ann Cayton puts the finishing touches on the skirt which she has made for her six-weeks project in Mrs. Marston's class.

HOME MANAGEMENT I

Home Management, a course in which girls learn child care, nursing, furnishing and decoration, is very beneficial to future homemakers. Demonstrating the correct procedure of home nursing, Phyllis Branch and Martha Timberlake show the class how to read a thermometer.

DRAFTING

John Strickland, a student in Mr. Erickson's drafting class, is hard at work.

CHEMISTRY I

Presenting their special projects to the class, Sandra Pullen and Willard Robbins explain the gramolecular weight of substances. Chemistry students thoroughly enjoy this class because of the numerous experiments done throughout the year.

THOUGH OFTEN WE NODDED,

ADVANCED WORLD HISTORY

As Miss Wise lectures about Louis XIV and the 17th century to her advanced world history class, her students take notes. In this follow-up course the world history pupils learn details and new aspects of the history of civilization.

EIGHTH GRADE ENGLISH

Clifton Camden, puzzling over the errors he made on his first composition, asks Mrs. Thomas for assistance.

SHORTHAND

Mary Jo Cain carefully practices shorthand words and phrases as she prepares her homework at the end of the class period.

DRAMA III

In the fall Drama III students study directing, and in the spring, the theater, past and present. Frone Cobb directs her fellow students, Anne Andrews, Jane Walker, Marsha Leake, and Kenny Bransford in a one-act play, "Pink and Patches."

AND DOZED, AND CHATTED,

JOURNALISM

After THE BEACONS have been returned by the printer, these students are ready to deliver the school newspaper to their assigned homerooms.

BIOLOGY I

Donna Pipkin and Billy Parianous take time out to feed their hungry mice.

METAL SHOP

In metal shop, numerous machines are used to shape metals into useful articles. Here Downie Wray and Joe Morgan work with the circle shear.

WE LEARNED, AND SO DOING

SPEECH

Voice records, which set a precedent for good speaking, are considered helpful by these speech students, Sally Phillips, Jimmy Hamrick, and Dennis Holbrook. Speech instruction gives students self-confidence, poise, and the ability to organize their thoughts into effective speeches.

FOODS

Future homemakers, Peggy Hite, Frances Hollifield, Judy Tosh, and Bridget Whitt, learn how to prepare a balanced breakfast.

HOME ROOM

The camera has caught Miss Strohecker's senior home room in a scene familiar to all American students.

WERE GIVEN

MACHINE SHOP

Using the metal working lay, Donnie Harris and Ray Hatchell work on salt and pepper shakers, one of the kitchen utensils they learn to make in machine shop.

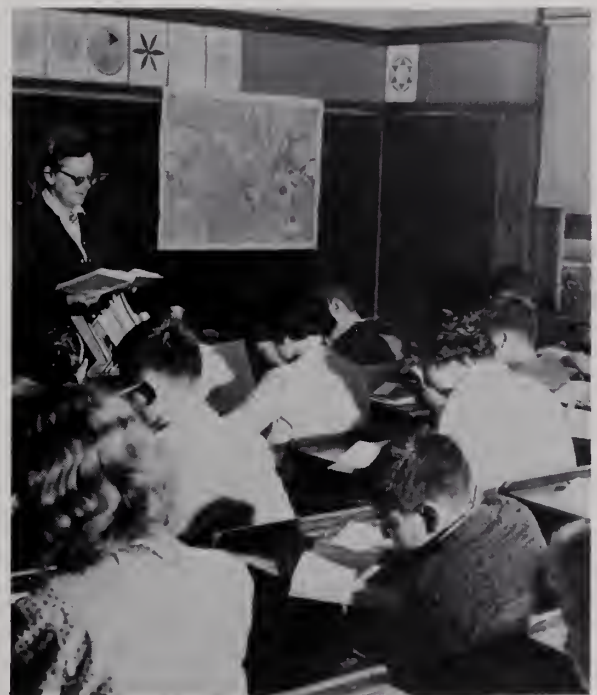

TYPING

Timed writes, a test of the student's speed and accuracy, is a familiar and important part of typing. In this picture, Mr. Gaskins' A Period class is being timed on a paragraph from their workbooks.

GIRLS' GYM

In girls' gym, one part of the year is spent in working with apparatus. Sheila Oakes demonstrates the squat vault to the class.

ALGEBRA

These students follow carefully as Mrs. Graves starts a new section of their Algebra I course.

THE KEY TO THE PAST

8TH GRADE MATH

In 8th grade math, students learn the basic fundamentals that they will use in everyday life. Polly Norris listens intently as Mr. Shirley explains a problem which is puzzling her.

PRINT

The printing shop is responsible for the majority of the printed material for N.N.H.S. Edward Springfield sets up type for the program of the fall play.

STUDY HALL

"Thank goodness for study halls," say Linda Ramsey, Pat Buckley, and Linda Robertson as they do F period home work in E period study hall.

AND TO THE FUTURE.

8TH GRADE SCIENCE

Gilmore Kirby, Brenda Patrick, and Danny Childress, using different experiments, demonstrate to the class the relationship between magnetism and electricity.

SPANISH III

Donald Houston and Rosalee Suskind, second year Spanish students, record their voices on a tape recorder so that they may become more aware of their errors in pronunciation. Besides learning fundamentals of "Espanol", students learn about Spanish culture.

GEOGRAPHY

These geography students listen attentively as Miss Armistead points out the routes of early exploration.

WE ARE GRATEFUL TO THOSE

12TH GRADE ENGLISH

Harold Klesmer, Judi Hawley, and Steve Seltzer meet at Miss Suttle's desk to get pointers on how to improve their short stories.

PLANE GEOMETRY

The circle, one of the most important geometric figures, is constantly used in plane geometry. Here Pat Massey works out one of the various problems confronting those taking this class.

BOYS' GYM

"Look out below!" is the cry heard in A period gym class when climbing the ropes is the order of the day.

CHORUS

Jane Taylor, Becky Crank, Cecelia Davis, and Pauline Collins, led by Mr. Lowder and accompanied by Sarah Puckett, sing "Bless This House".

WHOSE UNDERSTANDING

D. O.

U. S. HISTORY

"Just in time," says Miss Helmer as the bell rings when Allen Rowland is handing in his test paper.

FRENCH 3

While the rest of the class is doing an exercise, Marsha Sandler sneaks a glance at the letter she recently received from her French pen pal.

FIRST PUT THIS KEY

D. E.

By keeping the second-floor showcase attractively arranged, D. E. students Sharron Wray, Lewis Dunaway, and Miss Kanter, their teacher, add color and interest to the halls of N. N. H. S. This course, taken by a large per cent of upper classmen, prepares students for their future vocations.

BAND

Band classes are arranged according to the types of instruments: brass, percussion, and woodwind. Senior band brass class practices one of the N. N. H. S. favorites, "Giant," for the winter concert.

ADVANCED FRENCH

Marian Zuck and Eddie Woodman act out their parts in a play before the class. Students taking this course probe into the more complex fundamentals of French and into French culture and literature.

BOOKKEEPING

Practicing skills which they hope to use in life, Carol Sosebee and Frances Johnson tabulate figures mentally and mechanically.

IN OUR HANDS.

PHYSICS

Physics is a science of applying the principles of natural law to problems involving everyday mechanics. Charles Wright, Catherine Barter, and Larry Zimmerman, using their slide rules, ponder over motion problems.

WOOD SHOP

Harold Harding and Dwaine Kirkland sand a record cabinet top on the belt stroking sander, a machine frequently used in wood shop. Boys taking this class are proud of the decorative and useful articles they create from wood.

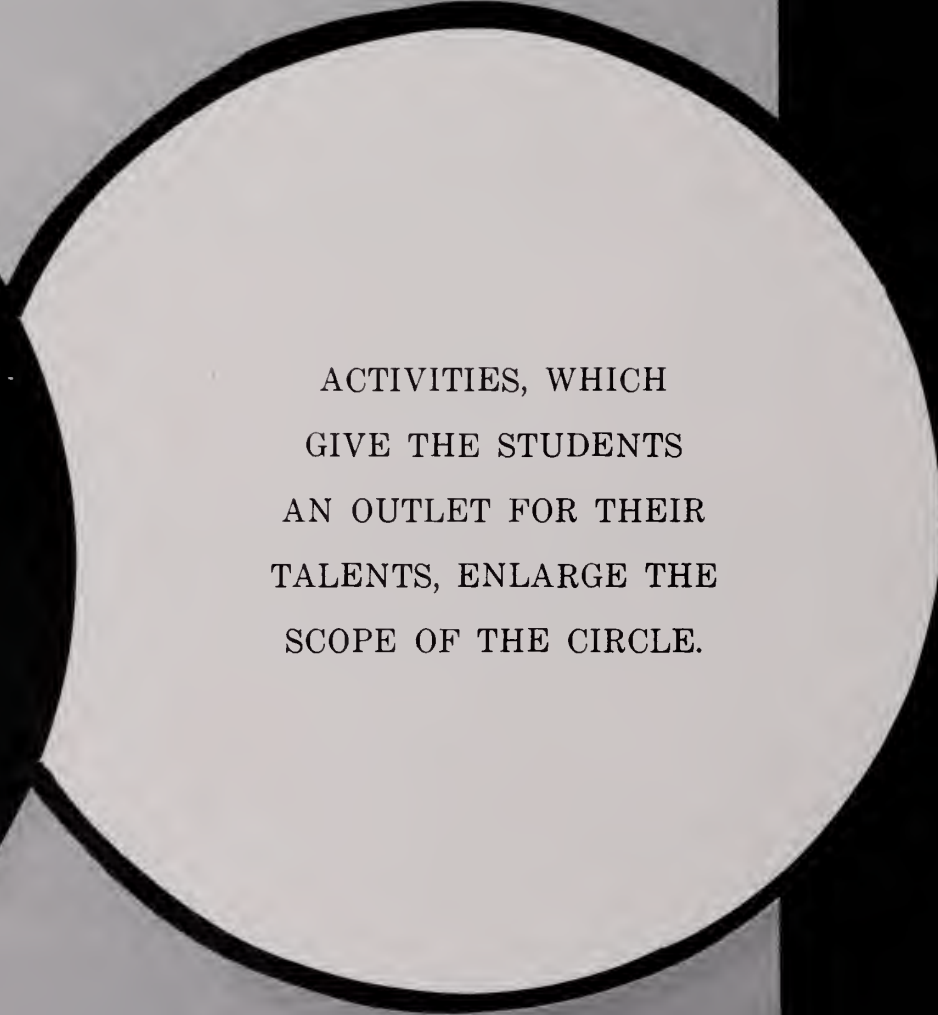

GOVERNMENT

Miss Maguire's government students, Eugene Turner, Bobby Boyce, James Elliot, Dorothy Jackson, Wendell Williamson, Robert Worthington, and Mack Hill, enact a court scene, which gives the class an understanding of judicial procedure.

Miss Gildersleeve, sponsor and mainstay of the SCA, guides them in promoting worthwhile activities throughout the school.

Mouse Assembly, Honor Week, school dances, Exchange Day, and Stamp Day—these are among the projects planned and sponsored by the Student Council. The SCA is made up of representatives from each homeroom and the Executive Board. The main purpose of the SCA is to further the general welfare of the school. Its aim and objectives consist of the following:

1. Promoting high standards of behavior in all phases of student life.
2. Encouraging: a. Scholastic achievement b. Care of the building c. Good school spirit.
3. Promoting a relationship of high standards:
 - a. Between the SCA and the student body.
 - b. Between the student body and the faculty.
 - c. Between the student body and the community.
 - d. Within the student body.
4. Keeping the student body well-informed of various activities.

With these objectives in mind the SCA immediately set to work in order to achieve its goals. The year was brought to a close by the election of SCA officers and appointment of committee heads for the coming year.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Planning assemblies, encouraging participation in Student Council committees, promoting changes for the betterment of the school, and nominating Honor Council members are among the duties of the Executive Board. Composed of Student Council committee chairmen, Student Body officers, and a representative from each class, the Executive Board acts as a central planning body for the SCA. This group meets every Monday morning to talk over and vote on plans for the coming week.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Banning Crosley, vice-president, Jimmy Moody, president, Jane Walker, secretary.

First Row: J. Glazer, 8th grade; B. Smith, chairman, 12th grade; Mrs. Nettles, sponsor; M. Cohen, secretary, 10th grade; P. Taylor, 12th grade. Back Row: S. Green, 11th grade; P. Gold, 11th grade; A. Fowler, 9th grade. Missing from the picture: R. Glazer, 12th grade.

To direct offenders, not to punish them, is the main objective of the Honor Council. The eight representatives are nominated by the Executive Board and elected at class meetings. The Honor Council, which handles all infractions of the Honor Code, is sponsored by Mrs. Nettles.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Recognized as one of the highest honors a high school student may achieve, membership in the National Honor Society is awarded only to those students in the junior and senior classes who excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school. The group is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Bauserman.

DRAMA STAFF HEADS

The Drama Staff Heads plan and supervise all behind-the-scenes activities for our plays. They are responsible for keeping all backstage activities such as make-up, scenery, lighting, props, effects, costumes, and advertising in order. Thanks to their co-operative spirit, we enjoyed two excellent plays this year.

FALL PLAY

Walter Morrison and Marlene Cohen, as Ginger's parents, look on with interest. Under the direction of Miss Crane, head of the drama department, two full-length plays are presented each year.

USHER STAFF HEADS

The usher staff not only collects tickets, distributes programs, and directs our guests and students to their seats, but adds color and order to the various school and community functions. The girls pictured here are the heads of the various sections, except Patty Andrews, who supervises the entire staff. Miss Crane, sponsor, chooses the staff members.

AND TO TEACH US

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

In September "Le Cercle Francais" held a picnic meeting and installed officers for the year. In November it met with the French Club of Hampton. Initiation of new members was completed, and at the end of the year the officers for the coming year were installed. The French Club is composed of students who have successfully completed one semester of French and are interested in the French language and culture. Mrs. Phoebe Hoyle is the club's sponsor.

The Senior Chorus, sponsored by Mr. Jerry E. Lowder, is composed of students from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who have musical ability and are interested in choral music. Each year this organization presents its Christmas Concert and Spring Concert with the band. In April some of the chorus members attended the Choral Clinic at the University of Virginia. The final performances of the N.N.H.S. Senior Chorus were heard at the Baccalaureate Service and Commencement Exercises for the graduating seniors.

AND LATER

J. V. FLAGTWIRLERS

L. to R., M. Knowles (head), S. Cooper, R. Spooner, B. Goolsby, N. Helmick, S. Lamberth.

The Junior Varsity Flagtwirlers add color and interest to the J. V. football games. They are also a welcome addition to any pep assembly because of their fresh and entertaining songs and routines. These girls are chosen by Mr. Wilson, the graduating flagtwirlers, and a small number of faculty members on the basis of versatility and attractiveness.

Varsity Flagtwirlers

The Varsity Flagtwirlers contribute grace and precision to halftime programs during the football season. They are chosen on the same basis as the J. V. Flagtwirlers.

AS ADULTS.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

L. to R., J. Walker, B. Veazey, J. Morgan, B. Smith, J. Hawley (head), R. Leifer, S. Morewitz, T. Burroughs, S. Spradlin.

Encouraging school spirit is the main job of our Varsity Cheerleaders. They are always enthusiastic and ready to keep the student body cheering its teams on to victory. They are also responsible for our pep assemblies, which are so well-planned, in addition to contributing much spark and eagerness to our athletic activities.

J. V. CHEERLEADERS

L. to R., M. Anas (head), J. Horton, P. Sweeney, C. Anderson, J. Coltrane, D. Rogers, K. Gillespie.

Our pint-sized pepsters, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, promote school spirit and enthusiasm at the J. V. athletic events. Their flashing smiles can also be seen at our pep assemblies, at which they present lively songs and skits. These girls, as well as the Varsity Cheerleaders, are sponsored by Miss Carol Kauffman and are chosen at the end of each school year.

Football Limelight

This year we give special tribute to our 1961 varsity football team.

The mighty blue and gold Typhoon team ended the season with a 5-4-1 record. With only three regulars returning from the previous year, we were fortunate in that the victories of our record included our two most important games, Hampton and Warwick.

By winning these two games, our grid season was crowned with the Peninsula Championship Award. Individual honors went to Downie Wray, who was voted the "Most Valuable Player" and received the Julian Gordon Award. The Good Sportsmanship trophy went to Jim Workman. The Typhoons were represented on the All-Peninsula Team by Horace Underwood, Downie Wray, Allen Hall, Bobby Boyce, and Jim Workman.

Hardwood Ledger

The great Blue and Gold Typhoon Basketball Team, competing in the most evenly matched Eastern District in many years, ended its season in a successful second place. With only one regular returning from last year the mighty Typhoons fought hard not only to win this berth but also to triumph as Peninsula Champs. Warren Mitchell, our new coach, showed his ability by disproving the early prediction that the Typhoon team was not even a district power. The '61 cagers carried on the N.N.H.S. tradition of defeating all opponents on their home court. They only experienced four losses during the regular season. A great disadvantage to the team was the loss of Steve Thomas, a regular, who was hurt during the second game of the season.

Our starting five, first consisting of Horace Underwood, Billy Anspach, Steve Thomas, Robert Worthington, and John Carleton, varied during the year with Mack Hill, Steve Corum, and Billy Bryant coming in and adding their support to the remaining starters. These boys and the others on the bench were always there and ready to take over when they were needed in a game.

N.N.H.S. has reason, you see, to be very proud of its new coach and its '61 Basketball Team.

Checking the records are the Basketball managers, David Riley and Wallace Williams.

J. V. BASKETBALL REVIEW

We congratulate our J. V. Team on being undefeated this season. Ending up with a 20-0 record our Breezes blew passed all other teams to capture the J. V. Eastern District Title. Mr. Palmer did an excellent job of coaching his team. His hard work was not in vain, for we feel sure that his team will be a future championship team and we are looking forward to seeing them on the varsity squad.

Diamond Review

As the 1961 Anchor goes to press, baseball season is just getting under way. With nine lettermen returning from last year, the 1961' baseball season will undoubtedly be a success. Under the direction of Coach Jack Powers and assistant Coach Bill Helms, the squad looks as if it will be a real contender for the Eastern District title. Chosen to lead the squad were co-captains Jim Workman and Paul Laws. The nine lettermen returning this year are Steve Thomas, Horace Underwood, Jim Workman, Paul Laws, Robert Worthington, Wendel Williamson, Donald King, Bobby Helmer, and Randy Tosh.

Newly elected co-captains J. Workman and P. Laws pause a moment for a picture with Coach Jack Powers.

SENIORS

SENIORS, ABOUT
TO EMERGE FROM
THE CIRCLE, ARE LIKE TANGENTS —
THOUGH THEY LEAVE,
THERE WILL ALWAYS BE AN ATTACHMENT.

---MEMORIES OF SENIOR

I remember well the fall of 1956 when you were "mice." It has been five years since that date, but the memories are vivid. Through those five years I have seen you grow — grow not only in stature — but in character, responsibility, knowledge, wisdom, and self-confidence. Sharing in this growth has been an enjoyable and gratifying experience for me, especially during the two years of my serving as co-sponsor of your class.

It has been a great honor to have been allowed this privilege, and I want each of you to know how I appreciate it. The memories of the Class of 1961 will always be with me as I am sure the memories of Newport News High School will be with you.

Congratulations upon your graduation, and the best of everything in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Nuttyscombe

To the Senior Class of 1961,

Thank you for asking me to be one of your sponsors; I have enjoyed working with you. You have brought much joy and happiness to me this special year of 1960-1961. I wish for each of you a full, a happy and worthwhile life. Always remember that in order for you to receive the most out of life you must give to life. You must learn to love people, to enjoy being with people, and to serve people.

There are many things that I am sure you want and desire for yourself. This is right; this is good. Plan for what you want, but be willing to give as well as to receive.

I hope to see many of you in the years to come. Always feel free to come by and see me.

Love,

Frances C. Hettles

YEAR EXPERIENCES

The president of the Senior Class is about to call to order a meeting of the Senior Executive Board. Sitting (L. to R.) Buddy David, vice-president; Roy Parrish, treasurer; Horace Underwood, president; Judi Hawley, secretary; and Wendell Williamson, executive board. Standing (L. to R.) Rusty Glazer, Honor Council; Becky Smith, Honor Council; and Pat Taylor, Honor Council.

"And now, as we leave Newport News High School . . ." says Buddy David, Senior Class speaker, as he practices his speech that he will deliver at graduation on June 8. Rusty Glazer, class speaker, and Anne Andrews, class speaker and giftorian, await their turns to rehearse their speeches.

WOULD LAST

It takes hard work and imagination to have an outstanding Senior Assembly. Making plans for the annual event are (L. to R.) Buddy David, Senior Assembly Committee co-chairman, George Whitmore, co-chairman of the Senior Music Committee, and Libby Blechman, Senior Assembly Committee co-chairman.

Chairman of the Senior Ring Committee, Harold Klesmer, and chairman of the Invitation Committee, Ophelia Baker, discuss the design of the invitation for the Class of '61.

Putting up the class motto on the Senior Bulletin Board are (L. to R.) Betty Overman, chairman of the Motto Committee, and Marsha Sandler, co-chairman of the Senior Bulletin Board Committee. Anna Wise, co-chairman of the Senior Bulletin Board Committee, and Colin Blakemore, Pennant Committee head, are getting ready to hang up the pennant of the Class of 1961.

Decorating for a Senior Class dance are (L. to R.) Flower Committee chairman, Anne Andrews, co-chairman of the Senior Dance Committee, Nancy Staton, Color Committee chairman, Rochelle Leifer, and co-chairman of the Senior Dance Committee, Bobby Frank.

After commencement, what are you going to commence?

Before you make your final decision, consider a telephone career. You'll start with good pay. What's more, you'll earn frequent raises as you learn. And the training you receive is excellent. You'll also enjoy interesting work, friendly people and pleasant surroundings. And you'll have the satisfaction of serving your own community. So why not commence a rewarding career with a telephone job?

More than fifty years have passed since the inevitable step was taken which transferred a sprawling tidewater village into the dignified status of a city of the first class in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Its past has been illustrious. But our justified pride in past accomplishments must not dim our eyes to the fact there is much left to do in the future.

THE HEADS OF STAFF

. . . And so, though a circle never ends, the circle that represents this year's experiences must continue only in memory. By word, picture and design, we have tried to record 1961. We hope that your memories will be enriched by this yearbook. It is now in order to thank those whose willing efforts were indispensable to the 1961 Anchor:

You, Mrs. Satterwhite, for your knowledge, your time, your interest and your understanding;

You, the student body, faculty, and administration, for your support and co-operation;

You, our imaginative, conscientious photographers, Mr. Edmonds, Mr. Lowder, Mr. Schultz, Nashman's Studio, and Delmar; And you, our publisher, Delmar Printing Company and your representative, Mr. Saine.

The '61 Staff

AND THE STAFF MEMBERS
ALL THANK YOU.
